July 2015 Issue

40p

Snakes, lizards, celebrity guests, press, councillors and children were all in attendance at our recent Grand Opening of the fantastic new free flow outside space at Hawkesbury Preschool!

We were delighted to welcome Wildlife TV presenter, Nigel Marven, famed for his role in the series, Prehistoric Park, and idolized by rather a lot of the children who attended the event, including the Preschool children and Reception and Year 1 from Hawkesbury School. Nigel kindly brought not only an extremely large snake, but a skink lizard too, which fascinated everyone! As he pointed out it is so important to encourage and introduce children to outdoor play. We hope that the area which we have created might help install a lifelong pleasure in playing in the great outdoors in all weathers. The area itself caters beautifully to our Preschool children and will enable them to explore a range of fun and exciting activities encouraging fine motor skills, literacy, mathematics, physical development and imaginative play whilst in a secure outdoor environment.

The whole process from concept to realization has been a fantastic community effort: Funding secured from two grants from South Gloucestershire Council, construction by John Walker from the village, local Waitrose staff assisting with decoration and many Preschool committee members plus their respective partners and children spotted painting, drilling, hammering and screwing. Thank you to them all. We really hope that the children of Hawkesbury Preschool and those of future generations will enjoy this space for years to come.

Cerebral Palsy Football World Championships 2015

James Blackwell from Hawkesbury Upton is currently representing England at the Cerebral Palsy Football World Championships 2015 at St Georges Park, Burton, starting on the 13th June.

England have been drawn into a tough group against Ukraine, Iran and Japan but are confident of progressing from the group and further into the tournament. The World cup is acting as a pre-requisite for the Paralympics in Rio 2016 and England need to finish in 8th place or higher.

At time of going to press, England secured a convincing 14 - 0 victory over Japan, with James scoring two of those goals in the opening match. All games will be streamed live from June 16th – 28th, via the tournament website, www.cp2015.com. We'll provide an update in the August issue.

Fiona Writes...

Welcome to the July issue.

Summer is finally in full swing and it actually seems to have warmed up at last. The veg garden is going great guns with cucumbers and courgettes starting to pop out in every direction, along with baby broad beans and lush lettuces. Bliss! All we need now is for the strawberries to ripen in time for the obligatory Wimbledon Pimms!

After the tennis, we've an Ashes Test series to look forward to in July/August—with the usual gallows humour and hopefully a bit of good, old-fashioned jammy luck for the England team! At least we'll have plenty to fill those cucumber sandwiches by then! If all else fails you can watch the intrepid Hawkesbury 1st and 2nd XI teams in action. Full details of July fixtures in this issue.

So, with Hawkesbury Show Day approaching at a rapid pace, there are many growing hints and tips in this issue, along with details of new classes introduced this year that you may wish to enter. Show schedules are now available in the Hawkesbury Shop and the Post Office, so let's see if we can't make the 130th event a bumper one. It could just be your turn this year to pick up one of the many sought-after trophies.

As usual in the village, there is plenty on this month. What could be better than a Sunday afternoon of "Jazz on the Lawn" as organised by the Friends of St Mary's on 12th July? There is also an Evergreens trip to Sudeley Castle and Gardens on the 14th and an evening with the Winterbourn Down Morris at The Beaufort on the 6th July — surely the perfect antidote to the hectic pace of modern life!

Read on for full details and I hope you have a splendid July, filled with sunshine and entertainment.

Please note — the deadline for the August issue is the 15th July.

All early copy is greatly appreciated.

Hawkesbury Youth Club News

Given that schools break up so early this year, and we meet only during term-time, we'll be having just the one meeting this month, on Tuesday 14th July, when we're hoping to have an end-of-term picnic party.

Over the summer holidays, the committee will be working on developing our new Cafe in the Cupboard, transforming our large storage space under the eaves, and also, in collaboration with the Hall Committee, redecoration plans for the upstairs meeting room.

Huge thanks to all the adults who have helped our village Youth Club have an excellent year, with membership rising steadily. Thanks to leaders Becki Spokes, Andy Davis, and Tom Weston, to volunteers Paul and Mary Broad; to the committee, who take care of the important business side of things behind the scenes; and to everyone who has donated time, money or materials to help our organisation go from strength to strength.

We wish all our members a very happy summer holiday and look forward to welcoming them all back on Tuesday 8th September to start the new term. Any new Year 6s who turn 11 in the autumn term are warmly invited to join us.

Walk Saturday 1st August 2014

Let's get out and enjoy the sunshine! It was certainly beautifully sunny as this was being written, but regardless of the weather; why not join us for another fantastic walk around the area.

On a clear day there is nothing that can beat the great views around Hawkesbury and Horton so this walk will make the most of this amazing reason for enjoying this great place we live in. With one steep climb, this moderate 4 mile (6.5 km) walk that starts on the Cotswold plateau with good open views across to Wales. We will then drop down to the village of Horton with its ancient church and historic Horton Court finally rising steeply back to the plateau.

We will be starting at the village hall car park where we meet at 10.15 am for 10.30 am start so that we can get back by lunchtime. Dogs are always welcome on our walks and this one is no exception.

We want to make the most of the summer so the walk will be followed by a barbeque at The Beaufort Arms by kind permission of Mark Steeds.

If you would like to receive email notification of future walks, please contact Jane Jones on rightsofwaygroup@hawkesburyupton.com or telephone 01454 238633.

TROWEL & ERROR

Meetings are held at 8pm on the 4th Monday of the month in the Methodist Hall in Back Street.

Instead of a meeting in May we went by coach to Hestercombe Gardens near Taunton and a very nice day was had by all. I heard whispers by some about 'Ooh! I really do covet those daisy type things growing in the walls' and 'Here, Pat, what are those nice things with the spikey leaves?'. I didn't actually see anyone snaffling samples to take home but I'm not saying it didn't happen.

On Monday 6th July we will be going on an evening visit to Wyndcliffe Court near Chepstow and for our July meeting on Monday 27th July we will be going on an evening guided tour of the Bristol University Botanical Gardens. How do we fit it all in?

If you are not a member but would like to hear a speaker that takes your fancy then come along as a guest – fee £3.00. For further information contact Terry Truebody on 01454 238364

THOSE WERE THE DAYS

By Alan C. Porter

There's nothing like a weekend at the seaside to blow the mental cobwebs away and recharge the batteries. The smell of seaweed, crash of waves, incontinent seagulls... but there is one vital part of the coastal experience missing. Fish and chips wrapped in newspaper! Gone now is the newspaper, replaced by those ghastly little white or brown, polystyrene boxes and wooden fork.

To peel open a copy of the Daily Mirror or the Sketch, for those who can remember that venerable publication, to reveal a pile of golden chips and chunk of battered rock, another blast from the fishy past, covered with a liberal dusting of salt and dripping in vinegar, was a journey into food paradise.

The sight of a white aproned chippy piling the chips and fish onto a greaseproof square, that was deftly folded after adding a good dollop of salt and vinegar before finally being wrapped in a sheet of current news was enough to get the juices flowing. The wrapping and folding was an art form in itself.

The final part of the glorious food adventure was when the vinegar dripped through the newspaper and ran down your arm as you walked along the prom. There was no wooden fork, newsprint stained finger were the order of the day.

As Mary Hopkin sang, "Those were the days, my friend," and they were.

Win Duncan

On behalf of the Parish News and our readers, sincere condolences to Penny, Howard and John on the sad passing of Win Duncan on 15th May at Beaufort House.

Our thoughts are with the family at this sad time.

Paul Broad was coming to the end of a long afternoon working on his allotment at the back of Birgage when he noticed a piece of string attached to something. This was odd he thought, because Mary had taken the ball of string back to the house several hours earlier. So, intrigued, Paul followed the length of string. It went all across the allotment and over the fence at the back. Paul climbed over the fence and followed the string through the field and up the footpath, around to the rear of their garden and through their back garden gate. He followed it through their garden into their kitchen, where he found.....a much smaller ball of string !!! Well, he didn't want Mary getting lost, did he ?

Gardening Thoughts for July

Potatoes

If potatoes are being grown, the gardener should be aware that potato blight is not uncommon in this area, and protection should be given to the potato haulms right now. In my experience, the most effective treatment has been Dithane 945 and this is available online. For the organic gardener there is a compound called Bordeaux mixture which is somewhat less effective, but acceptable to the Soil association who oversee organic treatments. As tomatoes are of the same family as potatoes, these should be treated also, if grown outside in the vicinity of potatoes.

Greenhouse tomatoes

Indoor tomatoes should be coming on well now and need to be looked after in terms of watering and feeding. It is difficult to be specific in terms of amounts of water but the plants need to be kept moist and watering should be done on a regular basis rather than now and then when somebody remembers. If watering is not regular the plants can develop a disease called blossom end rot, which shows itself as a dark "corky" spot on the end of the fruit rendering it inedible. Feeding begins with one of the propriety tomato foods, as soon as the tiny tomatoes appear where the flowers were,

Watering in general

During drier periods, we're all capable of thinking the plants in the garden need our help a bit more than they actually do. If watering is to be carried out, it needs a bit of thought as to what is the most sensible and necessary. It takes a 1 inch depth of water to sink 9 inches into soil or compost so this gives an indication as to what would be needed to get to the roots of all the garden plants. New plants need watering in so that the soil, which is going to be their supplier of food and water, is washed in to make contact with the roots. Apart from this, if the established plants are to be watered at all this should be done infrequently but with a heavy dose, This encourages the plant roots to go deep in their search for water. If the plants are constantly watered lightly, the roots are attracted to the surface looking for water, and can dry out. It's not a bad idea therefore, to dump the hosepipe in favour of the watering can, so that a check can be kept as to what each plant is receiving. It is difficult to be specific as to how much water indoor plants need as this can depend on position, weather, size of pot etc. but suffice to say that roots should be kept in moist compost but not stood in water. For greenhouse watering, the best time to do this is early evening, as the surface water just evaporates away if done in the heat of the day.

Lawn care

The lawn takes a bit of hammering in summer with frequent cutting and drying out as well as being walked on more than usual. For these reasons it's a good idea to give the grass a good feed if one has not already been administered

Conservatory plants

Many indoor plants will benefit from a holiday outside during the warmer weather, as long as their temperature tolerances are checked

Asters

If anyone is growing asters now is the time when they become vulnerable to an airborne fungal disease called aster rust. This needs to be caught early and is easily treated with any of the common fungicides

A REMINDER for HOME-BREWERS.....

Hopefully many of you have already got a few bottles of earlier brews stashed away to come out on Show day for the Home-brewed Beers Class.

If you are going to enter your beer in the Home-brewed Beers Class in the Village

Show July is really the last month available for a brew to mature to excellence on Show day. And the earlier the beer is brewed in July the more time it has to mature.....

Many home brew kits are specially formulated to mature quickly to produce a first class beer, so whether you are an experienced home brewer or a first timer, - Get a Kit and HAVE A GO!! - and let's cover the table with our brilliant beers on Show day.

A quick Reminder of the Rules:-

There will be 4 sub-classes, based on colour:-

- Lager / Blonde
(straw coloured)
- Pale Ale / Golden
(pale to dark gold)
- Bitter
(dark gold to chestnut)
- Porter/ Stout /Mild
(dark red to black)

- Beers must be home-brewed, and presented in 500ml clear glass bottles (crown-capped, spring-capped or screw-capped), and labelled with a tied-on label around the neck indicating the sub-class.
- Judging will be by our National Prize-winning local experts Mark Frankcom of Cotswold Spring Brewery and Steve Mc Donald of Severn Vale Brewery, who together form the Combined Brewers.
- The judges will take into consideration the following key aspects of a good ale: -
  - appearance in bottle
  - pour and condition (i.e. gas),
  - smell,
  - taste, &
  - finish.

If you want or need any further information about the competition, or if you are interested in brewing your own beer, please get in touch with me, Chris Chubb, chris@chubbs.co.uk, Mobile:- 07554995671.

Hawkesbury Horticultural Society 130th Annual Show. Saturday 29th August 2015

The Show Committee would like to extend their grateful thanks to the Hawkesbury Parish News which has once again sponsored the cost of printing the schedules for the Show.

Putting on the Show costs a lot of money and we are always most grateful for any form of sponsorship, this is the third year that the Parish

News has supported us in this way and we are most grateful indeed.

So thanks to Vicky and Fiona and all the Parish News team for their generosity.

Dick Blundell.
Hon Show Treasurer.

Hawkesbury Quiz League 2014-2015

Shown here are the 'Teachers' Pets' side, Pat, Jen, Vicky and Jill holding the coveted 'Brain' prize to mark their winning the 2014-2015 Hawkesbury Quiz League.

The prize was given at the League's end of season meal at the Beaufort where the wooden spoon accolade was accepted by Jane of 'In the Cheap Seats' – the only member of that team brave enough to turn up.

'In the Cheap Seats' in fact tied in last position with 'Da Boyz' and lost out only on a tie break. The League, which this year had 12 rounds, was keenly fought with 'Titter ye Not' being the early leaders until finally coming in second.

'Almost Half' and 'In the Cheap Seats' also won on different occasions. The quiz itself is not easy and I think all 7 teams did exceptionally well with some great performances from everyone.

Huge thanks to Gill Carey for all of her hard work in keeping the Quiz on an even keel (and to Adge for standing in as quiz master when required) – roll on next season!

JULY 2015

We are delighted that people are using the courts more but would respectfully request that, those who are not members, even if playing with a member, place their court fees in the Honesty Box. Maintenance of the courts is expensive and we rely on memberships and court fees to cover this.

We would also like to appeal to anyone who has not renewed their membership to please return their keys as we need them for new members. If you have a key please let us know and we'll arrange to collect it from you.

Club Nights on Mondays and Wednesdays are proving to be more popular now; with the warmer weather it's a very enjoyable way to spend a couple of hours in the evening from 6.30pm. Don't hesitate to just turn up if you have a free half an hour and see what you think. You never know you might just enjoy it! We would particularly like to welcome our new members on Club Nights as we haven't seen many of you yet.

Thank you.

Our Garden Meeting held at Holly Cottage,

Hillesley, in June, proved to be a windy one with the threat of showers. However our host Melanie Gibbs planned a Treasure Hunt and we managed to fit it in, and an exploration of her interesting garden, before retiring for refreshments in the Baptist Chapel next door.

For many of us seeing inside the Chapel for the first time was very special as the historic building has been beautifully restored and is used regularly by the school.

The NFWI AGM held on the 4th June at the Royal Albert Hall was a very special one, celebrating 100 years of the WI. Guest of honour was the Queen, accompanied by the Princess Royal and the Countess of Wessex.

Hawkesbury & Horton WI

Her Majesty has been associated with Sandringham WI since 1943.

In her speech the Queen said that in the century since the first WI groups were formed in North Wales and in Sussex, so much has changed for women in our society, she said the Women's Institute has been a constant throughout, gathering women together, encouraging them to acquire new skills and nurturing unique talents.

After receiving the WI Centenary baton the Queen cut the commemorative cake, and later said how much she enjoys a good fruit cake. All the royal guests were presented with one to take home. It seems they are often asked to cut one but rarely get the chance to take one home!

Flower of the Month was won by Judy Chancellor with an Arum lily.

BRITAIN'S GOT FAVOURITES

On first hearing that the robin had been voted Britain's favourite bird, I felt indignant on behalf of the blackbird who sings so beautifully from the apple tree outside my study window. Robins may be cute garden birds, hopping companionably close as we dig the garden, but I know that's only cupboard love: they're just waiting to grab a juicy worm.

Then it dawned on me that perhaps the real reason for the robin's triumph in the poll is that it has to be the most easily recognised bird in the country. It's probably the first bird people would think of if asked to name a British garden bird.

I suspect the same principle would apply to any similar competition designed to identify other popular native wildlife. Most popular tree? Most likely the conker or the apple tree, whose fruit make it so easy to identify, at least in the autumn.

Best butterfly? The peacock butterfly would have to be in with a good chance, the clue to its looks being in its name. I remember once as a small child I remarked while playing in the garden "Oh look, that butterfly looks like a peacock" and being puzzled when someone congratulated me on identifying it correctly. I had no idea there was such a thing as a "peacock butterfly", it's just that the creature's pattern had reminded me of that showy bird with fancy tailfeathers.

So, continuing in the same vein, what might be the nation's favourite native flower? In England, the rose, in Wales the daffodil. Scotland? Why, bluebells, of course.

What about aquatic life? Working on the principle that it's whatever is easiest to recognise, there's an obvious choice for Britain's favourite fish - let's hear it for the finger!

Shakespeare at Swinhay House – As You Like It

The stunning grounds of Swinhay House near Wotton-Under-Edge will once again open for a truly unmissable open air Shakespeare production. This year the all male cast of the Festival Players will be performing As You Like It, on Friday 3rd July 2015.

As in the Bard's time, an all-male company of skilled professional actors, playing in splendid period costume, invite you to share in the colour, poetry, and magical mayhem of this outstanding play, set to an original musical score by Johnny Coppin. Perfect entertainment for a summer evening.

This inventive and energetic production will be staged on the beautiful lawns of the contemporary country residence - Swinhay House (GL12 7PQ). With breathtaking, panoramic views of the surrounding countryside, a curving lake and spectacular sculptures, Swinhay is an idyllic venue for garden and theatre lovers alike; not to mention the perfect location for a picnic before the performance and a glass of something chilled. Licensed bar and hot drinks will also be available, as will plenty of on-site car parking.

The grounds of Swinhay House will open at 6pm for picnics before the performance starts. The play will commence at 7.30pm, please note that picnics are before the performance only and that the play is staged a short way from the picnic grounds adjacent to Swinhay house. Hot and cold drinks will be available in the interval. Please bring along chairs, blankets and picnics, plus suitable clothing for all weather conditions.

This magical and exciting theatrical experience is really not to be missed, so please book tickets early to avoid disappointment.

Tickets are priced at £15 (concessions £13) and are available from It Takes Two, Long Street Wotton-Under-Edge and online at www.utea.org.uk or by calling Under the Edge Arts on 07791 323869, booking is essential.

SOUTH GLOUCESTERSHIRE COUNCILLOR REPORT

The Council has held its first Council meeting, when the Committee structure was agreed, as well as the programme of meetings for the coming year. The Council make up is 40 Conservatives; 16 Lib Dems; 14 Labour; this is reflected in 7:3:3 representation on committees. The Council received presentations from the public on access to superfast broadband from Littleton and Elberton where residents are trying to run businesses, as well as pleas for Council support for public transport.

On the subject of Broadband – The Council has entered Phase 2 of the rollout of Broadband and they have also bid for more money from the West of England Partnership. There are still parts of the parish with no access to superfast broadband, however an early announcement is not anticipated.

All Council meeting agendas can be found on the website. I will be serving on the Adults & Housing Committee and the Public Health and Health Scrutiny Committee, as well as the Public Transport Forum. There are lots of training and induction courses being offered as there are many new councillors.

I have circulated grant opportunities to local groups and organisations – all groups do have to be registered before making an application. Decisions on grants are made at the Area Forums by local councillors. The next forum is on the 9th July at Shireway Community Centre in Yate.

Public Transport.

I asked for the unreliability of our local No.86 to be raised, at the Public Transport Forum, apparently the Wessex director was not aware of any problems! He has gone back to investigate. Let us hope this results in a more reliable (and comfortable) service – please do let me know if there any further no shows or lateness of the service

Housing

I have received several enquiries about housing in Hawkesbury Upton. Anyone wishing to apply for any of the social housing in the village, including one of the bungalows in Highfields does have to be registered with Home Choice; these bungalows are not restricted to people living in the parish. The Council assesses the applicant into one of three bands A; B; Registered – A taking priority over B and those registered. The amount of time you have been on list can contribute to the criteria and means the longer you are on the list, the more likely you are to be offered a house, with those assessed as A or B taking priority over others. However there is usually high demand for all houses in Hawkesbury Upton.

The final decision on who is offered a house - in this case- is made by Merlin Housing Association. There are houses in Highfields and Birgage Road which, in the first instance are restricted to a local connection; there is a cascade approach should there be no local applicant. All those interested in these homes MUST be registered with Home Choice.

If you need further help and advice, please don't hesitate to get in touch,

The Parish Council were intending to carry out a further Housing Needs Survey, and is a matter to be discussed by the new Parish Council

"May the mind of Christ my Saviour live in me from day to day, by His love and power controlling all I do and say." Hymn writer Katie Wilkinson (1859-1928)

Several of us went to Gloucester on Saturday 13 June for a farewell service and thanksgiving for the ministry of Bishop Michael Perham in our diocese, and in other areas too. He served in a number of parishes, mostly in the south of England, and held several administrative posts, including as a member of the Liturgical Commission, which developed the new liturgical services of Common Worship. He was enthroned as Bishop of Gloucester in the cathedral on 29 May 2004

Bishop Michael spent a good deal of time visiting all the parishes of the diocese on foot, meeting many people on their home ground, and returning on different occasions, for confirmation services, dedication services like the one for our Wulfstan window, and many others. He offered encouragement, he taught, developed our links with several dioceses overseas, in India, Sweden, Tanganyika and the US. He supported the ministry of women in the Church of England, and it is in large part thanks to him that he is succeeded by the first female diocesan bishop, Bishop Rachel Treweek

There were at least one thousand people in the cathedral for the celebration, so many that it was impossible to find all our friends, and even arriving three quarters of an hour before the service was due to start, we had to sit right at the back. It was a moving and heart-warming occasion, especially following the last difficult months Bishop Michael and his family have had to endure. Afterwards we enjoyed a glass of bubbly and cake in the cloisters

We thank Bishop Michael for his ministry among us

If you are flower arranging or cleaning at St Mary's in July, please check the rota on an earlier page – there are four weddings coming up, so you may not have very much to do!

Don't miss the events arranged by the Friends of St Mary's, also advertised elsewhere. They are always most enjoyable

Letter from the Vicar – July 2015

Dear Friends,

'The twain shall become one'

I have some good news for those who think that no one cares about Marriage any longer! This month, we have a wedding on every single Saturday and one on a Friday. How is that for a small country Benefice with only 3000 parishioners! And over the course of the year we have twenty couples getting married in this Benefice.

Of course, not every couple lives here, or has lived here. But they all have a connection to the parish and will continue to have for quite some time, we hope.

Finally, Baptisms (or Chistening as they are commonly called) are flying in. We have had half a dozen and another half a dozen or so booked. So, that is wonderful too.

Another piece of good news: Earlier in the year, I was warning about the lack of money in the church. It seems that parishioners here respond when asked, and we have raised almost £1000 per month, overall. We still have way to go, but I am proud that many of you are heeding the call and wish to preserve the church in these villages.

To really cap it all, church attendance is pretty good and at Oldbury in May, we saw lots of little children in the pews. So thank you to those of you who care about the life of the church, and are willing to put prioritise your care for God and be part of his witnessing community in our part of the globe.

We all need to show God that we care. And worshipping God is a vital part of that.

Best wishes for a happy July,

Richard

A pastor in Glasgow was informed of a lady in his parish who was in financial difficulties, and behind with her rent. So the pastor took up an offering at the church, a love offering, to help the lady catch up with her rent. The pastor went to her home to give her the money. He knocked and knocked and knocked at the door but there was no answer. Finally he went away. Later he met this lady in the market place. He told her he had been to her house and the reason for his call. "Oh! Was that you? I thought it was the landlord and I was afraid to open the door!"

(Rev 3 v.20) Jesus says, "Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If ANYONE hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him. And they with me"

Why not take the opportunity to open the door of our hearts to Jesus today? "Today is the day of our salvation" (2 Cor. 6 v.2)

Parish Council Meeting

If you are new to the parish or have lived here for years here are a few details that you may like to know regarding your local Parish Council Meetings.

They are generally held on the first Monday of every month at one of the following venues - Hawkesbury Parish Hall in the High Street, the Methodist Hall in Back Street or at the Bethesda Chapel in Park Street and they start business at 7.30pm.

The agenda is posted on the Parish Council's Notice Boards in the High Street just by the bus shelter and also at Little Badminton prior to every meeting. This provides details of all the items to be discussed. In addition each Councillor has an opportunity to raise items which they would like to discuss although no resolutions can be made for these until it has been advertised on the next agenda.

Planning applications are forwarded by South Gloucestershire Council for review and comment by the Parish Council; these need a response within 21 days of their initial contact. These are mostly addressed at the main monthly meetings but often, due to timing of receipt the Parish Council will also meet on the third Monday of each month to consider these applications. The Parish Council can also discuss normal business at these interim meetings.

Once the minutes of the meeting have been approved and signed as a true record they are placed on the Village Website for everyone to view. This is normally a month in arrears.

Do you have any issues or concerns that you would like to raise with the Parish Council? Would you like your Parish Council to listen whilst you express your views – then why not attend the next meeting? Public participation is welcomed and a period of 15 minutes is allowed at the start of each meeting for members of the public to speak on any relevant topic. This should give you sufficient time to talk to the Parish Council about those issues that matter to you. You are also most welcome to just come along and listen to hear about the work the Councillors are involved in - you do not have to stay for the whole meeting and you may leave at any time.

The Parish Council would like to welcome you to their meetings to give you an opportunity to meet your Councillors and have your say.

Queen and Country Running time: 115 mins Cert 15 A

The hilarious highlight of John Boorman's HOPE AND GLORY (1987), nominated for 5 Oscars: 9-year-old Bill Rohan rejoices in the destruction of his school by an errant Luftwaffe bomb. QUEEN AND COUNTRY picks up the story nearly a decade later as Bill (Boorman's alter-ego) begins basic training in the early Fifties, during the Korean War. Bill (played by a charming Callum Turner) is joined by a trouble-making army mate, Percy (Caleb Landry Jones). They never get near Korea, but engage in a constant battle of wits with the Catch-22-worthy, Sgt. Major Bradley -- the brilliant David Thewlis. Richard E. Grant is their superior, the veddy, veddy, infinitely put-upon, aptly-named Major Cross. A wonderfully funny and often moving depiction of a still-recovering postwar England.

Man Up Running time: 88 mins Cert 15

Nancy, is done with dating. 10 times bitten, 100 times shy, she's exhausted by the circus. So when Jack blindly mistakes her for his date, no one is more surprised than her when she does the unthinkable and just --- goes with it. It's going to take a night of pretending to be someone else for Nancy to finally man up and be her painfully honest, awesomely unconventional self... but will Jack also man up, and be able to get over her duplicity? Best just to let the evening unfold, roll with the consequences, and see if one crazy, unpredictable, complicated night can bring these two messy souls together.

ENO: Carmen (Live) Running time: 165 mins

English National Opera: Carmen (LIVE) by Bizet

A passionate tale of lust, seduction and betrayal, no other opera boasts as popular a following as Bizet's Carmen. Set during the dying days of Franco's Spain, Calixto Bieito's acclaimed production of this must-see opera has been enjoyed by audiences across Europe. Bizet's dazzling score evokes all the sounds and sizzling atmosphere of Spain through some of the opera's most famous melodies, from Carmen's seductive 'Habanera' to the Toreadors' stirring parade.

Sensational mezzo-soprano Justina Gringyte leads the cast, alongside the internationally acclaimed tenor Eric Cutler as José, ENO Harewood Artist Eleanor Dennis as Micaëla and Leigh Melrose as the toreador Escamillo.

Wednesday, 1st July 19:30

Globe on Screen: Titus Andronicus Running time: 185 mins Cert 1

Returning to Rome from a war against the Goths, the general Titus Andronicus brings with him the queen Tamora and her three sons as prisoners of war. Titus' sacrifice of Tamora's eldest son to appease the ghosts of his dead sons, and his decision to refuse to accept the title of emperor, initiates a terrible cycle of mutilation, rape and murder. And all the while, at the centre of the nightmare, there moves the villainous, self-delighting Aaron. Grotesquely violent and daringly experimental, Titus was the smash hit of Shakespeare's early career, and is written with a ghoulish energy he was never to repeat elsewhere. The 2015 cinema release will have audiences on the edges of their seats from start to grisly end.

Thursday, 9th July 19:30

NT Live: Everyman Running time: 90 mins Cert 15

BAFTA winner and Academy Award® nominee Chiwetel Ejiofor (12 Years a Slave) takes the title role in this dynamic new production of one of English drama's oldest plays, directed by the National Theatre's new Director Rufus Norris (Broken, London Road). Everyman is successful, popular and riding high when Death comes calling. He is forced to abandon the life he has built and embark on a last, frantic search to recruit a friend, anyone, to speak in his defence. But Death is close behind, and time is running out. One of the great primal, spiritual myths, Everyman asks whether it is only in death that we can understand our lives. A cornerstone of English drama since the 15th century, it now explodes onto the stage in a startling production with words by Carol Ann Duffy, Poet Laureate, and movement by Javier De Frutos.
