EDITORIAL

Fiona writes:

Welcome to the July issue of Hawkesbury Parish News!

Can it really be July already? So far we have actually had a few brief interludes of summer — in between the low cloud, drizzle, rain and gusting winds, of course! As the longest day of the year approached, a few days ago, someone pointed out that it would soon be getting darker earlier again. Well, as it was so dark at 8am that the kitchen light was on, I couldn't really imagine it getting much darker than it already was!

I should have known better than to sign up for cricket teas last month, as it was bound to pour down and, of course, did just that — all day — until shortly after the match was cancelled. Never mind — the freezer is now absolutely crammed with picnic food, in anticipation of the real arrival of summer. I refuse to be beaten yet and, as we go to press, will undoubtedly be clad in waterproofs chomping my way through the aforementioned picnic at a Westonbirt concert this very weekend. Windbrake and wellies in hand, Westonbirt here we come!

This month sees the exciting arrival and unveiling of our very own Gromit in Hawkesbury and a number of fundraising events in aid of Bristol Children's Hospital "Grand Appeal", as a result. The Summer Garden Party is also happening this month on Saturday 6th, with all proceeds going to the Senior Citizens' Fund. As you might expect, contingency plans are in place in case of adverse weather! Full details are in this issue.

Deadline for copy for the August issue is 15th July 2013! Please send it in as early as you can!

Hawkesbury Upton Primary School presents: Our Sports Day Special!!!

On the 8th of June, 2013 Hawkesbury CE VC Primary School hosted a day of fun sporting events; our annual Sports Day.

"Sports day is away of showing how good you have got and being able to compete with your class mates". Mrs. Callicott, Hawk. Mrs. Callicott was the organiser of this great event and even helped many pupils practice.

The races were a great success, with a warm day filled with clouds; some quotes were "when there's a time without moon, you can always play egg and spoon. If you do up your shoe lace, you can do the obstacle race. If there is hay in the way you can't do the relay." Laura, Hawk class. The races were flat, egg and spoon, sack, beanbag, obstacle and relay.

Some races were for kids and adults out of school. There were toddlers races and dad races. These races were some favourite races. Louis said that "The dads race were funny and exiting." Tommy said "I thought it was funny to see little ones being fast."

The most energetic races are the obstacle and relay races. The obstacle is a mix of different races all in one. It can be tiring doing all of it! The relay is a group of kids running back and forth.

At the end of the day here was a mass of sweaty kids ready to go home for early night. Everyone was so proud from coming 1st, 2nd, 3rd and taking part altogether. Every single pupil big or small is the most sporty person because they took part.

Missing from Parish Hall Kitchen – can YOU help??

A whole set of cutlery and several frying pans have been noted as 'gone missing' during the past year! The Parish Hall committee have had to fund the purchase of more cutlery and new frying pans to replace those that are missing. Has anyone in the village borrowed some cutlery or the frying pans to use at a home event and simply forgotten to return them? If so, they will gratefully be welcomed back to the Parish Hall kitchen.

If you remember borrowing these items, and now realise that perhaps you have not got round to returning them, please take them to the Hall and leave in the kitchen (with or without a note – it's up to you!) or if locked, just leave them on the doorstep. If you cannot return them yourself, or know where they might be, please get in touch with any Hall committee member who will be pleased to help you.

Would you like cash for something round the home that you no longer want/need/like?

Well, why not sell it on ebay

No ebay account? That's no problem.

I have been active on ebay since 2001 and my 100% positive feedback is as a result of more than 700 deals

For a percentage I will deal with everything including taking photos of the item, setting up the auction on the ebay website, dealing with any queries from buyers, receiving the sale proceeds and posting off the item for you.

Some items might attract a better price at a local auction house, and dealing with this is another service I can offer.

You can set the starting price and if required, set a reserve price.

THE HU5K RUN 2014 RACE REPORT

After an inauspicious start, when we were woken at 5am by the sound of rain hammering against the bedroom windows, the weather brightened up. Just in time for the start of the race, the sun came out to send 135 excited runners of all ages, from 7 to 70+, on their way. It was great to see such a wide range of participants, from school children and teenagers up to senior citizens. The 5km route started and finished on the school playing field before looping round past Farm Pool and along along the Cotswold Way to Sandpits Lane.

Two special guests joined us, adding to the excitement: former Olympic runner Nick Rose, who declared the start of the race and welcomed the first runners back, and Steve Webb MP, who presented the medals. Both Nick and Steve spent a great deal of time chatting to the runners and spectators, offering encouragement, inspiration and support. Both commented on the great atmosphere and the real community spirit of the whole event.

A full list of medal winners and all the runners' race times, plus a selection of photos, are now on the race's official website at www.hu5k.org. You can also view a full set of pictures and order prints at the online ordering facility Flickr, at this website: www.flickr.com/photos/hu5K For every print ordered, £1 will be donated to the PTA. Thank you very much to Steve Green Photography for taking such terrific photos and setting up this facility within 24 hours of the end of the race.

Thanks again to our generous supporters at Renishaw Engineering and the Hawkesbury Parish News team, whose cash donations covered the substantial costs of organising such an event e.g. hiring a Red Cross event support team, signage for the route, advertising banners, medals, and so on. Thanks also to our official water supplier, Alderley Natural Cotswold Spring Water for providing free bottles of water to every finisher and big bottles to the fastest runner in each category. We are very grateful to Aggy and Giueseppe and team, who brought The Fox Inn's new catering van to the race venue to sell delicious home-made pizza slices, sandwiches and home-made ice-cream. We highly recommend their catering for any outdoor event like this.

Countless other people worked hard to make the event a resounding success, from Anna and Andrew running a slick time-keeping operation, Deborah and Charene registering runners, Nuala, Di, Kate, Julia and team on the cake stall, Angela organising the marshalls and their support kits, Ian for setting up the water station, the HOBS for marking the course, all the marshalls who kept the runners safe and in good spirits. It was a fabulous team effort and a credit to our village community. Although we have yet to do the sums, I'm sure it will also have made a significant contribution to PTA funds, to the benefit of our lovely village school.

This event is now firmly on the annual calendar of Hawkesbury's many excellent community events - and we're already making plans for HU5K 2014 on Saturday 14th June, as so many people were saying on the day that they'd be back again next year! Well, it's never too early to start training....

Hawkesbury & Horton W I

We were fortunate to have fine weather for our Garden Meeting in June at Oakfield Farm Horton. The highlight of the evening was exploring the converted lorry, a Mercedes 814 Box van, that Caron Gay and her husband travelled the Silk Road to Mongolia in, and which had recently been the subject of one of our talks.

We are very grateful for their hospitality.

The Walking Group recently visited the Badminton Estate at bluebell-time and were inspired by the wonderful spectacle and perfume; a moment to be captured on camera!

TROWEL & ERROR

Meetings are held at 8pm on the 4th Monday of the month in the Methodist Hall in Back Street.

Our speaker for May was Victoria Logue who gave a talk on Extending the Flowering Season.

She pointed out that the difference between amateur and professional growers is feeding. Amateurs don't do enough of it. Any fertiliser will do.

Take photos of your garden to help you remember how awful it looks. On a photograph plants that are in the wrong place and plants that are no good etc stand out like sore thumbs. Get rid of them! Unloved or unwanted plants should be thrown in the recycling bin. It is not murder!

Dig up and divide herbaceous perennials and remember that for divisions you only need a shoot and a root but they should preferably be attached to each other.

Make a single focal point in your garden and borrow the surrounding landscape. Knocking down the neighbours fence in order to 'borrow' their landscape is not recommended.

On 22nd July 2013 we will be celebrating our first 5 years by going on an evening outing to Rodmarton House and gardens.

We do not meet in August but will resume on 23rd September with another eventful programme.

Don't forget to get ready for the highlight of summer in the village - Hawkesbury Show - which is on Saturday 31st August.

Terry Truebody (01454 238364).

NO MATTER THE WEATHER

By Alan C. Porter

"When I was a lad. . ." I can remember my granddad saying that and then my dad and now it's been passed down to me. Definitely a male age thing. I can hear my sons saying now, "It wont happen to me," but it will, it's imprinted in the genes.

So to recap, when I was a lad, you could always rely on the seasons doing what they were supposed to do. Winter would turn my knees to a spectacular purple and blue with the cold, long trousers hadn't been invented when I went to school. Summer the sun would shine for weeks on end, or so it seemed at the time. Not so these days as the seasons appear to have got well and truly mixed up. You can't rely on a two week summer break providing two weeks of fabulous weather. Maybe Global Warming is to blame, perhaps a misplaced Jet Stream, but there is one thing you can rely on no matter the weather. The glorious Devon cream tea!

Two scones, one plain, one fruity, strawberry jam, clotted cream and a pot of tea. This is true salivating food, a holiday extravagance not to be ignored, a cholesterol explosion on a plate!

No matter what the weather is doing outside the traditional cream tea is something to be savoured and enjoyed slowly, no matter what part of the country you are in. It brightens up the dullest of days and if the sun is shining, paradise has been achieved. It also poses the unanswerable question of what goes on first, the cream or the jam?

Beauty and the Beasts

In April 2014, a group of intrepid villagers will be running the Virgin London Marathon. Just like the fairy tale, Beauty (Vicky Starling) will be accompanied by a Beast. Or, more accurately in her case, five (lucky girl!) – Dave Anderson, Dave Williams, Craig Keogh, Geoff Robson and Jim O'Brien.

The Beasts have done a bit of running before (two of us have run London and Paris marathons, and the others have run half marathons), but it's all new for Beauty! So, as you see us out in the wind and rain of Bath Lane, give us a cheer on the way.

Across the next few months, we will be announcing a series of fund raising activities that we'd love you to be part of! It'll be great to have you accompanying us on our journey!

Flights of Fancy

If you're off travelling this summer, be careful who you sit next to on the plane. You never know where it might lead. Here's a cautionary tale from my pre-Hawkesbury days.

In my 20s, I worked as a journalist for a trade magazine in London, often travelling abroad on business. When going somewhere new, I always tried to add in a day's holiday for sightseeing. One Sunday on a flight to Geneva, I opened the book I'd brought with me: Dr Zhivago.

"Oh!" said the middle-aged businessman next to me. "What a coincidence! I've got that book in my bag too."

So began a long conversation that lasted till we touched down and ended with us arranging to share a boat trip around Lake Geneva that afternoon. He seemed pleasant enough, and after all, we had something in common – Dr Zhivago. The sun was shining, it was a glorious trip, and we followed it up with a drink in a bar. He asked if I'd join him for dinner.

All of a sudden, I started hearing what he was saying as if through the ears of my fiancé back in London. He would certainly not have viewed this man as a platonic friend who had no ulterior motive.

I made a transparent excuse and declined. The man gave me a wry smile, we shook hands (our only physical contact) and parted forever.

Only later that evening, alone in my hotel room, did I begin to wonder whether I'd been taken in. Surely this wasn't just a well-practised chat-up line, an opening gambit honed by years of business trips? Suddenly I realised: I had never seen his copy of Dr Zhivago. I suspect it didn't actually exist. And I never did tell my fiancé.

Wherever you're going for your holidays this summer, have fun, take care, and don't talk to any strange men.

Hawkesbury Parish Council

*Grass cutting and emptying of dog bins
Will fall to the Parish Council in 2014*

What effect will this have on us all?

Following the Parish Council meeting held on Monday 17th July 2013, a decision was made to hold an open day on Saturday 13th July 2013 at 10am at the Methodist Hall School room on Back street; this invitation is open to everyone to see what changes 2014 will hold. Grass cutting on highway verges and emptying of dog bins could be axed next year by South Gloucestershire Council.

Under proposals the grass cutting of highway verges which is normally cut by South Gloucestershire Council 14 times a year will only be cut twice (unless there is any evidence of a risk to lives). We can choose to take on this work by employing a contractor or pay South Gloucestershire Council for the 12 additional cuts.

With regards the emptying of dog bins, the parish at present have 4 dog bins and the cost of emptying 2 bins in 2014 will cost in the region of £ 459.00. However, one way of reducing this cost is to replace dog bins with normal waste bins. Dog poo bags can be placed into these bins and they will be emptied (at the moment) free of charge.

There is a public consultation being run by South Gloucestershire Council on the above proposed changes until the 13th September 2013. But why not come and speak to your Councillors and voice your concerns or check if these changes will have any effect on you on Saturday 13th July.

The reason for these changes is to help reduce South Gloucestershire costs.

Calling all trophy and shield winners from Hawkesbury Show 2012

If you have a silver trophy, cup or shield, from last year's Show, that you have been displaying proudly on your mantelpiece, it is nearly time to bid it a fond farewell or maybe 'au revoir' and return it to the show committee to be cleaned and catalogued. It will be seen again in the traditional trophies display in the Village Shop window in the week before the 2013 Show

If you have such a trophy, please return it to any of the committee members below:

- Mrs Deborah Neame, 'Kelmscott', France Lane Tel: 232979 deb@greenhillspotto.freeserve.co.uk
- Mrs Vicky Rispin, 'Coombe View' High Street. Tel: 232910 Vicky@the-hollies.co.uk
- Sue Manfield-Cox, 'Millstone Farm', Inglestone Common, Hawkesbury, S Glos. GL9 1BS

If you cannot get your trophy to any of these addresses, please contact Vicky Rispin who will arrange collection at your convenience.

All trophies to be returned by August 1st please - freshly cleaned and polished trophies will be received with extra appreciation!

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFUL SHOWING OF PRESERVES

I thought that these tips would be useful before you start making your preserves for next years Show!

General:

- Jars and bottles of clear glass – clean and unblemished eg. no chips around rim.
- Labels should be straight, a suitable size for the container, state the contents, day, month and year of making.

Covers for jams, jellies and marmalades:

- The twist top should 'pop' when unscrewed. This shows a good seal. Often an exhibitor will be tempted to test the seal before the Show and thus destroy it. Don't do it! That's our job!
- New twist top lids give the best seal but there is no need to use a wax disc as well.
- Do not use old lids when exhibiting as they can encourage mould if not cleaned thoroughly.
- Wax discs, placed smooth side down and trimmed to fit the jar can be used but only with a cellophane cover.
- Jars should be filled to within 3mm(1/8 inch) from top.
- Carefully wipe around top edge if splashed before sealing.
- Lids should be put on freshly potted preserves immediately each jar is filled, when hot.

Fruit Curd:

- Technically not a true preserve. Only make if there is a specific class for curds.
- Must be covered with a wax disc, cut to fit, and a cellophane cover.

Chutney:

- Consistency reasonably firm and uniform. No large pieces of onion, skin, etc.
- Jars filled to 12mm(1/2 inch) from top.
- No air bubbles or free vinegar.
- Use twist tops with plastic lining.
- Do not use cellophane covers.
- Label should state 'hot' or 'mild', type, day, month, and year of making.
- Keep at least 2 months before showing in order for flavours to 'mature'.

I hope that these tips help.

William Beckford (and his Tower)

AMY FROST aims to give us a 'whistle stop tour' introducing the somewhat eccentric William Beckford as a writer, collector and creator of magnificent buildings. He was one of the most significant collectors in the history of British art and design, with a taste for the very best of paintings, furniture and objets d'art. Amy's talk will reveal his whole life, from his education and the impact of his grand tour, to the building of Fonthill Abbey and the vast collection it housed, then moving on to his retreat to Bath and his final years.

Gromit Unleashed is a new ground-breaking public art exhibition, hitting the streets of Bristol (and Hawkesbury) this summer to raise funds for Bristol Children's Hospital charity, Wallace & Gromit's Grand Appeal.

For ten weeks from 1st July, the art trail will feature 70 giant, Gromit sculptures, designed by well-known and local artists, which will be auctioned after the event. See www.gromit-unleashed.org.uk.

In Hawkesbury, we are fortunate to be getting our very own Gromit as part of that trail, thanks to sponsorship by Mark & Fiona Steeds of The Beaufort Arms.

As a result, there is a flurry of Gromit-related events coming up in the next few weeks. Read on for details...

1st July - Unveiling with Hawkesbury Primary School at 11am

8th July - "Morris and Gromit" with Winterbourne Down Morris dancers 8pm (Morris time)

20th July - Ukulele Gromit 2pm – 5pm sing-a-long and Barbie

3rd Aug – Hawkesbury Village Walk with Gromit – Barbie lunchtime

Hawkesbury War Memorial project – Needs You!

Some of you may know that there is a Member of Parliament commemorated on the village war memorial. But how many know the other stories associated with the village in WW1? Did you know about the village lad who became one of the most highly decorated soldiers with the Canadian forces; or the story of the young man who survived the sinking of his battleship in 1915; or the one about the Hawkesbury lady who served on the Western Front?!

For a number of years now I have been researching the men who are commemorated on the village war memorial. Following my talk to the Hawkesbury Historical Society in November 2011, I extended my research to try and tell the stories of all of those who made a contribution to the war effort in the First World War.

Recently I uncovered a newspaper article in the Gloucestershire Archives from late 1918 which stated that 164 men and women from the parish had made a contribution during the war. I went back to my research and discovered that I have so far identified 158 of them! My plan is to publish a book telling all of the stories to coincide with the centenary of WW1.

Now, how can you help?!

If you have any information, photographs or memorabilia associated with those who served in WW1, or those who died in WW2 I would love to be able to use them and add to the research I have already done. Recently I have been given copies of William Bleaken's WW1 Memorial Scroll and an image of a dog tag worn by Eber Bleaken, both of which have helped add to each individual's story. If you have any information or images which you would be willing to share, please get in touch.

Village Summer Walk – Saturday 3rd August 2013

Did you know that the Parish of Hawkesbury has the most public footpaths than anywhere else in South Gloucestershire?

Come and join us for a 3 mile walk round the village using these footpaths and shortcuts, visiting places you never knew were there! There will be some stiles, but mostly the walk is on the level with a short detour down to the church.

Afterwards join us at the Beaufort Arms for a BBQ and come and meet Gromit!

Please meet in the Village Hall Car Park at 10.15 am for a 10.30 am start.

Dogs (or Gromits!) and children are welcome.

If you would like to receive email notification of future walks, please contact Jane Jones on rightsofwaygroup@hawkesburyupton.com or telephone 01454 238633.

HAWKESBURY SHOW

Everyone looks forward to Hawkesbury Show day, but without the intrepid volunteers, the show just would not happen.

Without entries, there would simply be an empty show tent.

Think about what you can do to make the 128th Hawkesbury Show a success.

Can you spare an hour on the day to help out?

Use your imagination now and think about what you could enter in the show.

Meet author Richard de Methley at Hawkesbury Show

Richard de Methley is a graduate of Worcester University, a lecturer in Medieval and Tudor Studies and a Castle Specialist of wide experience. You may remember him as Richard Lyne-Pirkis, who, for fourteen years was Headmaster of Rose Hill School, where one year his annual fireworks display famously blew out all the windows of the main school building!

Richard has adopted the nom de plume de Methley, after the Yorkshire town from where his family originated at the time of the Conquest. After leaving Gloucestershire, Richard returned to live in Yorkshire, leaving teaching to concentrate on his writing.

His first novel "The Lion and the White Rose" is set in June 1190, on the eve of the Third Crusade, and following the success of this story, Richard has subsequently written three more books in the "White Rose" series.

'Richard blends lusty, battling adventure with authentic, historical detail, whisking back nine centuries with skilful ease'

Richard will be at Hawkesbury Show to sell his books and chat to anyone who has an interest in medieval life.

Adults - £47

Over 65s - £20

Full-time Students/unemployed - £20

Juniors [under 18s] - £20

Hawkesbury School pupils - FREE

OUR NEW MEMBERS

Following our Open Day in May, we are delighted to welcome our new members who have already taken part in some coaching sessions and joined in club nights. It's amazing how quickly you pick it up again when your racket has been tucked away under the stairs for so long.

DON'T BE SHY - JUST GIVE IT A TRY

For any adults who just fancy trying your skills on court but not on a club night, please contact Tricia [see overleaf for contact details]. We are looking for people to play at all levels and just for enjoyment rather than under any pressure. So we quite understand you may not want to play "publicly" until you've tried out your racket again.

Just let us know and we'll arrange something to suit you.

How to join HUTC

Please contact any Committee Member [see details overleaf] who will be able to help you should you wish to join before the summer comes and goes.

Hawkesbury Cricket Club
The Gentlemen of Hawkesbury
Match reports by our cricketing correspondent Ed Riddington

NO MID SUMMER MURDER, BUT GENTS GET THE HILLESLEY ST BLUES

As George Harrison once sang 'All Things Must Pass,' and so it was that the Gentlemen of Hawkesbury's record-breaking unbeaten streak of three matches (one of which was abandoned halfway through, another rained off completely) came to a sorry end.

There was an aura of impending doom in the visitor's changing room at Hillesley before the game began, when it became clear that we had not got enough players. Despite the best efforts of Bernie Evans, we were unable to secure any guest players to make a full team. To make matters worse, our star all-rounder, Barry Wright, was mysteriously absent, despite strong rumours that he was one of the first to make himself available to play. We were indebted to a youthful trio of Olly Parker, Charlie Carnegie and Jonny Haywood for braving a game of senior cricket.

On a perfect afternoon for a match, we found ourselves in the field first. Debutant Richard Parker, in his first game for 15 years, opened the bowling but injured his leg in his opening over. Tim Chancellor took over from the pavilion end and tempted a certain M. Vaughan out of his crease, giving Dean Simmonds the first of two razor-sharp stumpings. The Swann-like Evans picked up a wicket in his first over and, when Richard Parker bravely returned to bowl a seven over spell, Hillesley were reduced to 60 for six after twenty overs.

Howard Bradley, bowling more accurately than ever before, maintained the pressure on the home side, securing a leg before wicket and frustrating the combined talents of George Bailey and James Crighton, who were both looking to take the game away from us. Haywood, a talented young spinner, took his first wicket in senior cricket when Sean Hopson held a catch to remove Crighton. It was a just reward for a gutsy spell of bowling that rarely faltered in line and length. The innings ended when Simmonds - with the deft touch of the Artful Dodger - stumped Bailey, leaving Hillesley stranded on 145 all out, with four overs of their innings remaining.

Egg sandwiches, tea, coffee and walnut cake under sunny skies. In the immortal words of Greg Wallace: cricket doesn't get tougher than this.

Needing to score at just under four an over, the Gents were propelled forward thanks to two lusty blows off consecutive balls from Hopson. Sadly, his innings was halted by a ball that sneaked between his pads to the stumps. The run rate soon reduced to three an over, but Tim Chancellor built a solid platform, featuring in two sound partnerships with Martyn Foster (44 for the 2nd wicket) and Simmonds (50 for the third). When Chancellor was out for 52 in the 34th over, the Gents needed to score at a run a ball to see them home. Sadly, the nagging accuracy of Andy Starling and his team stemmed the flow of runs and the Gents were left 11 runs short.

The bitter, but unfamiliar taste of defeat, was soon replaced by the bitter, but very familiar taste of bitter.

For the Gents, this match was a heart-breaking tale of unrequited love. Despite encountering six maidens, four from Ed Riddington alone, the Gents failed to respond to the thrill of the chase and, more worryingly, the search is still on for Mr Wright.

PATIENTS REWARDED AS RUNS PROBLEM CURED WITH CLINICAL WIN OVER FRENCHAY HOSPITAL.

Rumoured sightings of a 19th century tea clipper in full sail proved to be untrue on June 9th. Instead of the Cutty Sark, maritime enthusiasts at Hawkesbury's ground witnessed 14 players moving the new sight screen twenty paces to the left in readiness for the Gents' next match against Frenchay Hospital.

In a 999 emergency after our runs problem at Hillesley, we were treated by two of the three players who ironically do not have both A and E in their name: a specialist opener, Pete Roberts, and Barry Wright, who - in Bowie-esque style - has reinvented himself as a middle order batsman, albeit without the Ziggy Stardust lightning bolt over his beard. (The third player with A and E in his name? Joss White, whose game finished early with a minor injury.) Wright and Roberts put on an impressive 76 for the 3rd wicket, following the loss of Sean Hopson and Martyn Foster. Roberts went on to score piles of runs, his 85 being the highest by a Gent in living memory. Wright, batting higher up the order than at any time since the reign of George VI, elegantly compiled 25 runs. Both were out in quick succession, bringing together the father/son combination of Bernie and Jamie Evans, who were also out, but in quicker succession, bringing in Edward Riddington and Howard Bradley. This pair combined to enjoy a stand of 68 for the seventh wicket. To the astonishment of one and all, the Gents closed on 229 for 6.

A stunned group of players ate their chocolate cake, washed down by tea with the finest organic milk, occasionally pinching themselves to make sure that they were not dreaming.

The second half of the match was more astonishing than the first. In front of a capacity crowd that had filled the bench in front of the scoreboard, William Cullen embarked on a spell of bowling that will long be talked about by those privileged to witness it. Reminiscent of Michael Holding's brutal spell against Geoffrey Boycott back in 1981, Cullen's first ball, a perfectly executed 35mph full toss flighted wide of off stump, proved to quite unplayable, resulting in the Frenchay opener playing on. Cullen outwitted two more players with his expert variation of over-pitch and long hop. Riddington claimed two wickets and Frenchay's top five were out by the end of the seventh over. Sam Beeley soon got in on the act, with 2 wickets in five balls and, when Bernie Swanny-Evans found the stumps in his first over, Frenchay were reduced to 27 for 8. Dunford, batting at nine, led a recovery, finishing on 56, the next highest scorer making 9. An athletic diving catch from Jamie Evans brought the innings closer to its conclusion, with the Gents securing an emphatic win of 118 runs, their first home win since 2010.

Selectors for the next match have the same dilemma that England had in the 90s. Should they stick with the specialist keeper, Simmonds, batting down the order? Alternatively they could pass the gloves to their opening batsman, the more vocal Hopson. As with Alec Stewart before him, keeping wicket may affect his performance with the bat.

If you are interested in playing for the Gents, please contact Bernie Evans on 01454 294202.

““Unless the Lord builds the house, its builders labour in vain.” Psalm 127 : 1

Most of June's activities have not yet happened at the time of writing, so I can't report on them, but I will remind you of two forthcoming events for July, in case you miss them elsewhere in the Parish News! They are: Jazz on the Lawn at Church Farm House on Sunday 21 July from 12 noon to 5 pm, with thanks to Lady White for hosting it, and to the Friends of St Mary's for organising it; and the flower festival from 26-29 July, with a preview and music on Friday 26th at 7 pm, tickets £7.50. Book these dates now

On a more mundane note, Mary Davies would be very glad of help with cleaning the brass in church. She is currently doing this alone, and looks forward to someone joining her, only once a month, and if there are several offers of help, it could be just once every two or three months. Please consider whether you might be able to take on this light task, no heavy lifting involved!

Finally, another appeal for people to church sit on Sundays during the summer months, as well as during the flower festival, so that the church can be open to visitors. This is an enjoyable contribution to the life of St Mary's. It means being there to talk to visitors, to tell them something about the church and its history (if they want to know), and to offer them tea and cake. If no-one comes, it's an opportunity to catch up with reading or planning the week ahead. If you would like to be included, please contact Betty Salthouse, 238410, who is arranging the rota to suit you

Dates for your diary

Sunday 21 July – Jazz on the Lawn – Church Farm House – 12-5pm
 Friday 26 July – Flower Festival preview with music and refreshments

Comments; Site and location plan shows an angle to the new extension on the boundary; but the detailed plans shows squared; which would subsequently encroach on the neighbour's garden. PK13/1580/F	Flexor Farm Orange End Inglestone Common South Gloucestershire GL9 1BP	Change of Use of Land from agricultural to residential. Erection of single storey side and front extension to form additional living accommodation.
Comments; The Parish Council Object to this planning application for the following reason; From previous history and to the best of their knowledge they understand there is an agricultural tie to this property, which would render this application invalid (see reference to number 25 Certificates Agricultural Land Declaration of the planning application form). "(A) None of the land to which the application relates is or is part of an agricultural holding" has been completed. The Parish Council consider it is very important that this agricultural tie is kept for future generations of agricultural workers. The new extra residential curtilage is taking away agricultural land from this property. The increase of the residential footprint of the building appears to be 87% which is disproportionately large (based on the figures provided see 2.7 of the design and access statement). The drawings do not show the first floor room on the existing building or stairs to it. Is this the second bedroom as stated elsewhere but not accounted for in the drawings.

District Councillor's Report

South Gloucestershire - A great place to live and grow old

South Gloucestershire residents are likely to live longer than almost anyone else in the country.

Data released by the Department of Health showed that South Glos had the fifth lowest rate of early death (before 75) out of 150 council areas looked at. The data looked at common causes of death - Cancer, heart disease and stroke, lung disease, and liver disease. In every single category, South Gloucestershire residents were comfortably ahead of the rest of the country.

This confirms what many of us have known for years: South Gloucestershire is an excellent place to live and grow old. We have beautiful open spaces to enjoy, a range of cultural activities, and we're very healthy. However it doesn't mean we should rest. We've just taken on more powers to promote healthy living in South Gloucestershire,

Transport

Thank you to all those people who responded to the consultation on the local bus service. At a recent meeting the Planning & Transport Committee agreed to the tenders for our local 84/86 Bus Service, as well as continued support the 620 which leaves from Old Sodbury for Bath. Although there is no addition to the service, there will be tweaks to the timetable to enable better reliability.

A direct public transport from Yate to Southmead Hospital is still being discussed. There is a petition to call for a direct route from Yate, this can be signed on line or please contact me- hopefully copies in the Post Office.

Frome Vale Area Forum – the next meeting will be on the 11th July, 7.00 pm at Shireway Community Centre, Yate. There is always a public forum session, and the agenda includes a presentation on future developments at Yate Shopping Centre, including plans for the new cinema. Also items on how the Council can better engage with residents. New Homes Bonus monies will be allocated by local councillors. All are welcome to attend.

The Commons

Many residents are unhappy about a recent letter regarding the storing of wood and other encroachment infringements on the Commons. I understand a further letter, together with a map, will be sent to residents, reaffirming the removal of woodpiles and other encroachments. I have shared my concern with officers regarding this approach.

The South Gloucestershire Council contact officer, Mike Plumb, who must be thanked for the sterling work he has done over the last few years will be leaving the Council at the end of June. Sally Pattison, will be the officer who will be the temporary contact until a permanent appointment is made.

Broadband Update

There is slow progress on the delivery of superfast Broadband to our rural areas.. The areas which will definitely receive state subsidy have been identified, but it is not yet clear how these are to be prioritised.

Armed Forces Day

Too late, for the magazine, I am afraid, but the Council is committed to this annual commemoration, which this year was taking place at Staple Hill on 29th June.

Perhaps now is the time to start thinking of how the community will remember The Great War. The Guides held a wonderful and informative exhibition last year, and I understand the local branch of the Royal British Legion is already considering this.

Grass cutting.

As part of the Localism Act and also with budget implications, South Gloucestershire Council is proposing to limit the highway grass cutting and to charge for dog bin collection. Parish councils have been asked to consider this, and decide what level service they want for the parish. The local parish council will be holding a drop in session for residents to learn more.(Advertised in this Magazine).

Public Rights of Way

South Gloucestershire Council has published some helpful guides for parish councils and landowners, outlining the rights and responsibilities relating to Public Rights of Way. There are also leaflets advising on how to mark paths when fields are ploughed and cropped, as well as guidance on enforcement as well as the policy on Public Right of Way enforcement. The leaflets are available on www.southglos.gov.uk and I have asked for some to be sent to the Parish Council. Please let me know if you would like further information.

Shakespeare's Globe: Twelfth Night

Tickets: £10.00

Filled with a cast of unforgettable characters, Twelfth Night is a moving comedy of loss and misplaced love and includes some of the most exquisite songs Shakespeare ever wrote. The all-male production, exploring clothing, music, dance and settings possible in the Globe around 1601, stars award-winning Mark Rylance and Stephen Fry. Twelfth Night's sell-out performances led to a hit run in London's West End.

The third Globe production will be The Taming of the Shrew, screening on Monday 29 July.

Sunday 7 July 11am - 5pm

Birthday Party

The Wotton Cinema opened 100 years ago, so we are having a huge birthday party to celebrate! The streets will be closed, there will be over 40 stalls, live entertainment as well as old films in the cinema - and much more. Come and celebrate the day when moving pictures first came to Wotton-under-Edge!

Armed Forces Day on the 29th of June 2013

Venue; Yate Library
Time 10.00am to 5pm

This is a Free Event and open to all

The day begins at 10.00am with a morning aimed at children and young people to provide an opportunity to make thank you cards and posters to members of the armed forces both past and present. These cards will then be displayed before forwarding them onto members of the armed forces.

From 3pm the Author Jake Wood will be speaking about his book "Among You" and his experiences (supported from footage taken by Jake in Afghanistan) Some of you may be aware of Jake from his appearances on national TV and media coverage. I have attached copies of articles taken from the media, apologies but the attached are in PDF format and were supplied by Jake's publisher.

The event is staged in partnership between CVS South Gloucestershire, South Gloucestershire Council, and Yate Town Council. I do stress that there will be no major parades as a part of this day but if anyone is interested in attending an event where there will be parades then an event will be held in Downend on the same day. More information can be found on the South Gloucestershire Website.

Clare Teal back for Christmas

Following Clare Teal's huge success at the Sodbury Jazz Festival on 1st June the reaction has been ecstatic. "Brilliant... it was a wonderful evening... we should have more like this in Chipping Sodbury".

And now there will be because, following a post-concert conversation with the organisers, Clare has agreed to return in December with her famous Christmas Show.

'Clare Teal's Festive Fiesta' – a unique blend of seasonal swing, cheeky latin grooves, humour and, to add a little romance, a smattering of cozy fireside ballads, comes to Chipping Sodbury Town Hall on the evening of Wednesday 4th December.

Tickets priced £20 can be ordered by calling 01454 34410 or by email to info@visitchippingsodbury.com.

Where Do We Go Now? (2011) Running time: 100 mins (Cert 12A)

In a war-ravaged Middle Eastern village, Muslim and Christian women band together to prevent further sectarian violence in this comic fable. In a remote Middle Eastern village, Christians and Muslims have lived side by side all their lives, largely in harmony despite the odd outbursts of rage between the menfolk. Although the village is largely cut off from the outside world, with a broken bridge, landmines in the surrounding countryside and next to no television reception, news of escalating religious conflict does start to filter through, and tension begins to rise. As the men grow increasingly hot-headed, the women hatch inventive and elaborate plans to distract them and defuse the situation.

Populaire (2012) Running time: 111 mins, Cert 12A

Spring, 1958. 21-year-old Rose Pamphyle (Deborah Francois) lives with her grouchy widower father who runs the village store. Engaged to the son of the local mechanic, she seems destined for the quiet, drudgery-filled life of a housewife. But that's not the life Rose longs for. When she travels to Lisieux in Normandy, where charismatic insurance agency boss Louis Echard (Romain Duris) is advertising for a secretary, the ensuing interview is a disaster. But Rose reveals a special gift - she can type at extraordinary speed. Unwittingly, the young woman awakens the dormant sports fan in Louis. If she wants the job she'll have to compete in a speed typing competition.

The Great Gatsby 2D (2013) Running time: 145 mins, Cert 12A

"The Great Gatsby" follows Fitzgerald-like, would-be writer Nick Carraway (Tobey Maguire) as he leaves the Midwest and comes to New York City in the spring of 1922, an era of loosening morals, glittering jazz and bootleg kings. Chasing his own American Dream, Nick lands next door to a mysterious, party-giving millionaire, Jay Gatsby (Leonardo DiCaprio), and across the bay from his cousin, Daisy (Carey Mulligan), and her philandering, blue-blooded husband, Tom Buchanan (Joel Edgerton). It is thus that Nick is drawn into the captivating world of the super-rich, their illusions, loves and deceits.

Man of Steel 2D (2013) Running time: 143 mins, Cert 12A

During General Zod's (Michael Shannon) attempted coup on the dying world Krypton, chief scientist Jor-El (Russell Crowe) rockets his son Kal-El, the planet's first natural-born child for centuries, into space. Crashing on Earth, the child is raised by the loving Kents (Kevin Costner and Diane Lane) to keep his immense strength and super-sensory perception secret. But when the Kal-seeking Zod appears on Earth 33 years later, it is surely time for Kal / Clark (Henry Cavill) to reveal himself.

Behind The Candelabra (2013) Running time: 118 mins, Cert 15

Before Elvis, before Elton John, Madonna and Lady Gaga, there was Liberace: virtuoso pianist, outrageous entertainer and flamboyant star of stage and television. A name synonymous with showmanship, extravagance and candelabras, he was a world-renowned performer with a flair that endeared him to his audiences and created a loyal fan base spanning his 40-year career.
