EDITORIAL

Fiona writes:

Welcome to the November issue of Hawkesbury Parish News.

As I type this editorial, we are just back from an excellent two-week break on the coast in Pembrokeshire, with the dog (of course!). It was very long-awaited and much needed! During those two weeks, I realised how much I take an internet connection for granted, to check the news, sport, pick up emails and keep on top of the latest parish magazine submissions. Having only occasional access to the internet meant that each time I could log on using a café or pub wifi connection, I was just inundated with emails and requests. I think you'll soon realise that everyone has pulled out all the stops this month and November and December are definitely going to be very busy months in the village, as this issue is fit to burst! Back to work for a rest for me!

By the time this issue comes out, we should know whether the Hawkesbury Skate Park appeal has succeeded in getting enough votes to win £6,000 from the Nat West Community Force competition. Checking the site at time of going to press, we had an amazing number of votes for a small village — so, fingers crossed, and I really hope we can bring you good news next month.

Keep warm and safe now that the clocks have changed, and I hope to see as many of you as possible at the Hawkesbury Bonfire Night on Saturday November 5th.

Deadline for copy for the December edition is 15th November 2011.

NEWS FROM HAWKESBURY PRIMARY SCHOOL PTA

It has been fabulous to have so many new volunteers join the PTA his term, and we are now buzzing with new energy, new projects and new ideas! We'll also be continuing with some of our favourite and most popular events, kicking off this month with:

PTA Christmas Shopping Evening (Friday 11th November, 7.30pm-10.30pm, in the School)

This is a great opportunity to get your Christmas shopping off to a good start in the comfort of your own village. There'll be a fabulous array of stalls loaded with festive gifts, decorations, food and drink, with many items costing £5 or less. We've had exceptionally high demand for space this year from stallholders, many of them new to Hawkesbury, so there'll be more choice than ever. Please do come along to support them - and your village school! We guarantee a great atmosphere - but if the thought of Christmas shopping is still too much for you, why not come along just to take advantage of our special Pamper Zone, where you can try massage and beauty treatments at just £5 a time? There'll be a brilliant raffle with masses of prizes, too, as every stallholder contributes at least one item - so make sure you buy some tickets for your chance to win! There's an admission price of £3 per head and for this you get your first drink thrown in and some delicious canapes made by the committee, so we think it's a bit of a bargain! Hope to see you here....

School Christmas Fair (Saturday 10th December, 11am-2pm)

Get this date in your diary now for our ever-popular Christmas Fair, fun for all the family, with loads of activities and stalls for children of all ages and a visit from Santa too. Hot home-made soup and refreshments so parents can relax over a delicious lunch while the children have their fun.

Pre-schoolers, grandparents, friends and relations all welcome too. Not to be missed!

New Junior Library

One of the next projects the PTA will be undertaking at the School is to revamp a disused area to make a fabulous Junior Library. If you have any skills, materials, advice or contacts that would help us in this task, please do get in touch now. We'll be setting up a working party with a view to completing the new Library in the Spring Term and all help would be much appreciated!

And on the subject of books, please do keep passing on to us your unwanted reading matter - we're continuing to make a steady income via sales at Head Start Studio and The Fox - thank you so much to their proprietors for keeping our books on display there! Do drop in to take advantage of their kind service if you want to stock up on some good books to get your through the dark winter nights - all adults' books (some good as new) are just £1 and children's books are a steal at 10p each.

It's never too late to join the PTA! New members are always welcome throughout the year. We meet in term-time at 8pm on every second Tuesday in the month, in the School's Community Room. Date of next meeting: Tuesday 8th November. You can also always find our latest news and information on our website:

Autumn has been a busy time so far at Hawkesbury Preschool. The children have been choosing which vegetables to grow over the winter in our vegetable beds; so hopefully we will have some more preschool-grown produce to pick over the chilly months to come!

We have been enjoying walks outside more than ever, searching for conkers and autumn leaves to bring back to Preschool. The autumn theme has continued inside too, where the children have been learning about the changing seasons and decorating the hall with their leaf and bark rub-bings.

The children have also been looking forward to celebrating Halloween and really enjoyed baking their Spooky Halloween Cookies.

On the fundraising front, our Family Bingo Night was a huge success and thank you to everyone who came along to join in the fun and of course everyone involved in organising this event!

Our next fundraising activities will be our Christmas Shopping Day, very kindly hosted by Hawkesbury Upton Post Office and Gift Shop. It will be held at The Glass Lodge, Little Sodbury End, Chipping Sodbury BS37 6QE on Thurs 10th Nov, 10 - 2pm; and our ever popular Christmas Family Disco on Saturday 10th December at the Village Hall.

Tickets for our Christmas Raffle will very soon be on sale too. This year we are sponsored by Milburys Estate Agents. The draw will take place on 16th December and prizes include an Evening Spa at Whatley Manor and a deluxe B&B at The Bell, Malmesbury. For more details on all these events look out for our ads!

In addition to all our activities, a very easy way to help raise money for Hawkesbury Preschool is to use our Spend and Raise eStore: www.spendandraise.com/hawkesburypreschool

With shops such as Debenhams, M&S, John Lewis and even Sainsburys on the website and with Christmas just around the corner, anyone thinking of shopping online could support us by using this site. You don't have to register, just follow the link above!

Finally if you are interested in enrolling your child at Hawkesbury Preschool we are holding another open morning on Wednesday 23rd November from 10.30am at the village hall.

For more information please contact one of our play leaders on 07989 484774, or email us at: enquiries@hawkesburypreschool.org.uk

Unclaimed Prizes from Hawkesbury Show

There are still a few cash prizes still unclaimed from Hawkesbury Show 2011 - ranging from 50p to £5 gift vouchers. If anyone knows that they have won a prize and have not yet claimed it, please contact Vicky Rispin on 232910 by the end of November. Names of all class winners were printed in the September Parish News, if you need to check.

If you do not wish to claim your prize money, please let me know and the money will be passed to the Treasurer, to be counted as a donation towards the show in 2012.

Would you like cash for something round the home that you no longer want/need/like?

Well, why not try eBay?

No eBay account? That's no problem.

I have been active on eBay since 2001 and have a 100% positive feedback from over 600 deals. For a percentage I will deal with everything including taking photos of the item, setting up the auction on the eBay website, dealing with any queries from buyers, receiving the sale proceeds and posting off the item for you.

Some items might attract a better price at a local auction house, and dealing with this is another service I can offer

You can set the starting price and if required, set a reserve price.

Any questions, call me on 238778, email me at mickbendeaux@hotmail.com or come and see me at 20 Birgagge Road

HELP!

Our Preschool needs YOU!

We have a vibrant Preschool and Toddler Group in the village which is run by a voluntary committee. The last 2 years have seen fewer young children in the village and our Preschool is now feeling the impact of this. We know that so many people in the village and surrounding area are passionate about our preschool and we are therefore asking for support from our community.

You could support Preschool by:

- Supporting our fundraising or making a donation
- Sharing a talent or interest with the preschool children
- Using Preschool for your child or grandchild
- Being a Preschool Ambassador – spread the word in our local area!

Please come to our Open Morning on Wednesday 23rd November, from 10.30am

Preschool sessions are run by our fantastic Playleaders (Sarah, Kelly and Gemma) on a Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 8.45 to 11.45am. All children between the ages of 2 and 5 are welcome at preschool – they do not have to live in the village and don't even have to be potty trained! All children over the age of 3 qualify for FREE preschool education for up to 15 hours a week. Your child can use their entitlement at Preschool.

On a Tuesday we run a "stay and play" toddlers session from 9.45m to 11.30am for all parents / carers with children under school age.

Hawkesbury & Horton W I

Liz Howard our President reported a busy month ahead with a WI walk from Wotton to Nibley, an invitation to Sherston WI for an evening flower arranging talk and demonstration, an informal wine and cheese social at Hilary's, to mention just a few. We were also reminded to sign the library petition "Save Our Libraries."

Sue Webb, our delegate, reported on the AGM at Weston-Super-Mare, also attended by 9 of our members on a lovely sunny day. Sue said 328 new members have joined the Avon Federation this year and four new WI's were opening, in Bath, Frenchay, Weston-Super-Mare and Yatton.

Speaker Kath Aldom MBE of the Charity Paul's Place based at Coalpit Heath gave a very inspirational talk on the charity that was started sixteen and a half years ago for people with physical disabilities to have a place they could call their own. Loneliness can be a problem for disabled people and they now have day facilities with 200 places and an age range of 18 to senior citizens. The Charity does not get any funding and rely on their own fund-raising. They work extremely hard to raise the £300,000 a year needed to run it. As well as a few salaried staff they are very dependant on volunteers.

Sarah Daley from Oxfam spoke on a project they are running in conjunction with the WI. It targets women affected by poverty, girls denied schooling, and, domestic violence. Oxfam is also working with the WI on a Women Reaching Women training partnership.

Afternoon speaker Colin Anderson gave a witty and entertaining talk on Life in the Palace Kitchens where he worked for 5 years. Interestingly the Queen is served salad with every meal except breakfast. Colin also had to prepare food for the Royal Corgis and the Queen would feed them herself.

On the subject of food, our speaker for the evening was Mrs R. Clark, a dab hand at her topic Indian Cookery. She was able to turn out enough pakora/bhaji snacks on a small table stove to feed us all! It was simply amazing how many tasty treats came from so little! We soon realized how useful Chickpea/gram flour proved to be and took some home to use ourselves.

During the evening the Olympic Pennants were on display and all were beautifully made. The pennant made by Lynn Edwards was chosen to represent our WI at the Sodbury Vale Group of WI's social held at Old Sodbury. It did in fact win which was great. All the pennants will go forward for Quilts For London.

Flower of the Month Competition was won by Judy Chancellor with a lovely yellow gladioli.

Diamond Jubilee Celebrations

After the great success of the Royal Wedding Street Party & Celebrations earlier this year and the Golden Jubilee celebrations in 2002, it is time to start thinking about the celebrations for next year's Big One — the Diamond Jubilee.

The weekend of the 3-5 June has officially been called Diamond Jubilee Weekend. The late May Spring Bank Holiday has been moved to Monday 4th June and the 5th June 2012 has also been declared a Bank Holiday.

There have already been requests for a Street Party, and I am sure there are many other more ideas on how to celebrate. Please come along and share ideas on the 16th November 8.00 pm in the Village Hall.

HAWKESBURY GARDENING CLUB

TROWEL & ERROR

Meetings are held at 8pm on the 4th Monday of the month in the Methodist Hall in Back Street.

Our Speaker for September was Marcel Floyd who gave a talk on Clematis. Marcel is a disciple of Richard Cripps, one of our favourite speakers, and displays his mentors gift for putting his subject across in an amusing, friendly and informative way.

He first talked about the 3 groups of clematis and how to plant and prune them. Like some other speakers who actually run nursery business's he is not much impressed by TV gardening programmes which sometimes give poor information, for instance, the idea of planting clematis deep, deep, deep is not recommended because it can easily lead to stem rot. He said to plant them no more than 4" below the surface. To make clematis sprout side shoots a friend of his plants them horizontally which makes the plant throw up multiple stems.

When demonstrating how to prune viticella varieties he cut a specimen plant almost to compost level. Some ladies suffered the vapours on seeing this wanton butchery but Marcel soothed them with a grin and calming word.

After the demo he showed a collection of slides of clematis. He of course knows all the Latin names but was a bit surprised that so few of us could do the same for the varieties that we had in our gardens. 'Nullius in verba et caveat emptor' I always say!

Marcel said he enjoyed his visit and commented that we were much more interactive than a recent audience at Ya-Té. Well, said I, you can't keep this mob down.

Our next meeting is on Monday 28th November 2011 when Sally Taylor will talk about Seasonal Arrangements. If you are not a member but would like to hear a speaker that takes your fancy then come along as a guest – fee £2.50. For further information contact Terry Truebody on 01454 238364.

GRAB v SPLAT

By Alan C. Porter

There are 38,000 species of spider in the world and Britain can lay claim to 650, so why do they all congregate in my bathroom?

Every night when I go to bed the bath is a pristine, unblemished white, in the morning it contains a hairy, eight legged splodge. You would think that having that amount of legs it would be easy peasy to scramble out, but no.

Walk upside down on the ceiling, no problem, get out of a bath, big problem. The trouble is at this time of the year they have achieved mega size and tend to fall off the wall. I can't believe they'd just fall off, there's got to be at least six of their eight legs in contact at any one time, unless they decide to jump for joy or play leap-frog?

They also have a turn of speed that borders on the supernatural when they go into panic mode which makes removing them in a humane manner a lot more difficult. I go for the grab and eject through the window move. I'm not sure how humane that rates on the scale of one to ten, considering the drop to the ground below, but it's better than the splat! method.

I think what is needed is a mini ladder put in the bath overnight so they can escape before they get swept to oblivion on a soapy tsunami and go to the great web in the sky.

Mind you, if they do escape, where do they go???

Moving On

Though I've lived in this house for 21 years, every so often I feel an irresistible urge to rearrange the furniture. While new neighbours and their furniture vans have come and gone all around me – never more so than just now - I'm acting as if I'm still settling in.

This weekend, the acquisition of a new bookcase was the trigger. Once that was in place, I felt compelled to move the sofa to a different spot. Next an armchair, then a rug and a table – and before I knew it, I was upstairs rotating my bed 90 degrees. Realising this new layout provides a much better view on waking, I wonder why didn't I use it before. Then I remember that I did, at least once, about ten years ago. I repositioned it during a subsequent feng shui phase when I discovered it was unfavourable not to be able to see the door from your pillow.

But no matter how much I move things about, I still never arrive at the perfect layout. It drives my husband mad. It's bad enough when he can't find his car keys: not being able to find his armchair is far worse.

A psychologist would have a field day with my restlessness. Is it all just displacement activity to avoid the things I know I really ought to be doing? That unfinished manuscript calls....

One thing's for certain: I could never be one of those people who moves house every couple of years. I'd be in a constant state of exhaustion.

Fortunately, relocation is not on my agenda. Which means I've still got time to get the house straight before I die. In fact, that could be the title of my autobiography: "I'll get it right before I die". (On my gravestone will be "At last! An uninterrupted lie-in!") That's if I can ever decide on the best place to put my writing desk...

The New Lease

When you see the morning light upon the window pane,
It brings not only one more day but life is born again.
Life itself to live in ways you never knew before
Healing, helping, harvesting the lost years to restore.

Every morning is unique it matters what you say
Where you go and what you think, it matters day by day.
Live and learn to follow after what is good and true
A new lease on the house of life, is granted unto you.

Ann Harris

Popular Gardening

I was recently given a supplement from the April 1938 "Popular Gardening" magazine and for interest during the "quiet" gardening months of Winter, I hope a few of its articles will be re-printed in the Parish magazine.

Flower colours as a planting guide

Most yellow and orange flowers like plenty of sun, while blue flowers are better in semi-shade. Pink and red flowers do best in a border which gets both sun and shade; too much sun is liable to burn them. Purple, puce, lavender and white flowers prefer the shade. Whilst there are exceptions to these rules, the depth of the colour is the guide. The brighter and clearer the tone of the flower, the more sun it would normally need, whilst the softer, more delicate tints are happier in a cooler spot.

I can't guarantee the veracity of these tips, but they seem to be a good starting point for next year's planting.

Seed packet terms explained

Seed packets usually bear such descriptive terms as "hardy annual", half-hardy perennial etc. which are often just reduced to initials. As the treatment of these varying classes of plant differs greatly, the following information is offered.

Hardy annuals (h.a.)

Plants which only bloom once. Seeds are sown outdoors in Spring for Summer flowering, or in September for the following year.

Half hardy annuals (h.h.a.)

Seeds are grown in a heated greenhouse or frame in February or March, and the seedlings are plated out in May to bloom in Summer.

Hardy biennials (h.b.)

Seed is sown out of doors in May and June and the plants are set out in Autumn to complete their cycle the following year.

Hardy perennials (h.p.)

These plants live and flower for several years and many will die back in Autumn and flower again the following year. Seed can be sown in a greenhouse in March Or out-of-doors in April, May and June.

Can you imagine an England where virtually every village, or small town, is closed - or only open part-time? A grey world where we do all our shopping in Tesco (or have Tesco deliver online)? Could our only social interaction be to glance at a neighbour across the frozen food isle? So ask yourself and others - are you supporting, and hence investing, in your local shops and businesses?

Summer Skittles

Deep into Autumn, and with a couple of outstanding games to be played, still no final league table available. We know that the Rats Pack have finished as Champions and the Cup was given to them at the Presentation evening.

The Singles competition was won by Shaun Chappell of the Rats Pack but their players were just beaten in the Doubles by Chris Taylor and Mick Bendeaux of the Brats.

Mick Bendeaux

Did you know that 4 out of 5 adults experience back pain at some point peaking between the ages of 35 and 55? Did you know that the total cost of back pain corresponds to 1-2% of GDP (gross domestic product) costing employers up to £624 million and the NHS £1 billion and private healthcare sector spending £565 million?

Well it's true and there are hundreds of causes ranging from a sprain or strain to arthritis and disc herniation. It all paints a rather stark figure but prevention is better than cure and there are some simple things you can do to help minimise the chances of getting simple back pain.

Here's a short and sweet guide to some of them:

Stay active - take regular exercise particularly walking and swimming

Flexibility - regular stretches will help maintain flexibility and strength in the back

Reduce stress levels

Bend from the knees and hips and not your back, particularly when lifting

Posture - good posture will minimise strains - think of this whilst watching tv and driving in particular or if you work on a computer for any length of time

Healthy eating and drinking - excess weight adds to the strain on the back and keeping hydrated will help the discs stay hydrated and do their job of shock absorbing for the spine

Never bend and twist at the same time

Carry heavy objects close to the body

Carry loads in a rucksack using both shoulder straps rather than a one sided sling style of bag

Sleep on a supportive mattress - not too soft or too firm

If you do get back pain there are a range of treatments available from self-management with pain relief and hot or cold compresses to seeking out a professional such as a chiropractor or physiotherapist.

You should always see your GP or healthcare professional if, in addition to the back pain, you also suffer from a fever, redness or swelling in the back, pain down your legs and below your knees, numbness or weakness in one or both of your legs or loss of bladder or bowel control.

This exclusive girl-only event featured performances from some of the UK's hottest musicians, including Pixie Lott and X Factor finalist Olly Murs.

We went to the Sunday afternoon concert and we had a FANTASTIC time!

Everyone joined in, singing along to Eliza Dolittle's 'Pack Up Your Troubles', were amazed at Ed Sheeran's vocals and went crazy when The Wanted came on.

Thank you SO much for helping us, we wouldn't have been able to go without your support.

Hello and I hope this month finds both you and your families well and in good health. The nights are drawing in and soon by 5pm darkness will have fallen. We will shut our doors to the cold, wet evenings leaving only the working and fool hardy to face the weather. The darkness will bring new perils in different ways for us in the Police service, dark evenings for people who have just past their driving test can seem all the more daunting when rain, sleet and snow are thrown into the mix. So, before it gets too bad give your car a once over to make sure your ready for the winter weather, tyres, lights, wipers and anti freeze all need to be in tip top condition.

The darker evenings also mean we tend to close the door to the world watch the box in the corner whilst eating chocolate...well Mrs Fortune does anyway! But we must not lose sight that it also allows the criminals to go about their business with relative stealth under cover of darkness. So if we are going out, leave the lights on in a couple of rooms. Keep an eye on your neighbours property, a good neighbour is worth their weight in gold if something makes you have a second look take note of it, whether it's a car or people acting in a suspicious way.

Hopefully, you will all have got the message that's been in the press and on the radio there is now a new number for contacting the police for non emergency calls and its dead simple to remember its 101 yes 101. Put it in your mobile for ease of use.

Rural watch has been launched by us now with a good start. PCSO Richard GAY has been to several farms marking property and erecting the Rural watch posters. This involves marking of all valuable equipment, listing makes, models, serial numbers and then keeping those registered up to date via email bulletins as to what is happening in the local area that may be of concern. If you know some one who requires this service please contact Rich and he will arrange a visit.

As always I close this hoping you and your families have a safe and healthy month ahead! Remember our contact numbers are in the back of this magazine if you need to chat re concerns, then don't hesitate.

Kindest Regards

Paul Fortune PCSO 7015

HAWKESBURY HORTICULTURAL SHOW 27.8.11

AGM - Chairman's Report

"I would like to start by saying what a brilliant day the Show was again this year. The weather could have been kinder to us but all in all it wasn't too bad.

I would really like to thank everyone on the committee that worked hard all year round and in the week running up to the show and after, with the Sunday night, making it a success too. Overall, we hope to have made a profit this year.

I would also like to thank the Duchess of Beaufort for crowning the Carnival Queen, Mrs Fearnley-Whittingstall for presenting the prizes in the marquee and Jim Wilkie, for his help on the day – nice to have him back! Thank you to all the stallholders and to Roger's fun fair for supporting the show. Thanks to all who helped on the deer roast and who spent all day cooking. Thanks to Mr Nick Cragg for doing the auction, which I have been told had a really good outcome, and all this would not be possible without the support of the people of Hawkesbury and surrounding areas for entering and donation exhibits. Thank you to the judges for their time and also to The Beaufort Arms for supplying lunch.

So overall it was a good year again and this would not be possible without all your help and support. If I have forgotten to thank anyone, please forgive me.

Lets make 2012 even better

Keith Player
Show Chairman

ADVERTISING IN THE PARISH NEWS – we need your help....

Due to the number of businesses currently advertising in the Parish News, it has been possible to keep subscription costs down over the years. The current cost of 40p per edition is a real bargain, providing all your up to date information about village events, church services, village contacts and a voice for members of the community to have their say. Over the last few years it has been possible to give some of those profits back to the village – with donations going to the Youth Group, the village playground improvement fund and this year, contributing to the installation and maintenance of Lee's Lights at the Village Hall.

WANTED: Someone willing to join the Hawkesbury Parish News Team

POSITION: Advertising co-ordinator

JOB DESCRIPTION:

1. To keep a record of all the individuals and businesses that advertise in the Parish News (data base set up, just needs to be kept updated)
2. Once a year, collect advertising fee for the forthcoming year
3. Be the contact for new advertisers and pass on information as required

QUALIFICATIONS: None –A home computer and email facility would be useful.

PAYMENT: Expenses incurred as part of the job, such as phone calls, stamps, envelopes etc. will be reimbursed - and the warm glow of satisfaction that you get as you realise that you are helping to keep the Parish News running and continuing the fine work of the past Advertising co-ordinators.

'A MONUMENT TO HAWKESBURY – THE NEXT GENERATION'

It is now almost a year since the latest book of village memories was launched and in that year over four hundred books have been sold. All proceeds from the first 'Monument to Hawkesbury', which was published in 1994, have been donated to village organisations and ventures that particularly benefit the young and elderly. The following donations have, or will shortly be made from the proceeds of 'The Next Generation':

|                               |      |
|-------------------------------|------|
| Hawkesbury Youth Club         | £150 |
| Senior Citizens Fund          | £150 |
| Hawkesbury Horticultural Show | £100 |
| Youth Drama Workshops         | £ 60 |
| Hawkesbury Skate Park Fund    | £ 50 |

We would like to thank the Village Shop and the Post Office for continuing to sell the books which are available at a cost of £3.50 and £5.00 respectively, and to the generosity of all those who have bought them. We will be giving further grants in 2012, so if your organisation would benefit from some help with funding and fits the above criteria, please contact us.

As this has been a great year for apples, here's a delicious recipe to enjoy on a cold November day!

Hot Apple Muffins (Makes 24)

Ingredients:

250g (8oz) plain flour
1 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
50g (2oz) caster sugar
½ teaspoon ground ginger
½ teaspoon mixed spice
2 eggs, beaten
150ml (¼ pint) milk
50g (2oz) butter, melted
250g (8oz) cooking or dessert apples, peeled, cored and finely chopped.

Method:

1. Grease 24 x 5cm (2 inch) muffin or bun tins.
2. Sift the flour, salt and baking powder into a mixing bowl.
3. Stir in the sugar and spices.
4. In a small bowl, beat the eggs with the milk and mix in the melted butter.
5. Stir the liquid quickly into the flour mixture. Speed is essential once the liquid is added to the baking powder, so do not beat the mixture or bother about any lumps.
6. Fold in the chopped apples.
7. Spoon the mixture into greased bun tins, so they are one-third full.
8. Bake in a pre-heated oven at 220°C (425°F), Gas Mark 7, for 15 - 20 minutes or until well risen and golden brown.
9. Turn out of the tins and serve hot, split and buttered.

HAWKESBURY CHOIR NEEDS YOU!

Fancy singing carols for Christmas?

We are a friendly group of singers at St Mary's Hawkesbury (ages 14 through to - well, we wouldn't like to say!). We sing some of the major festivals at St Mary's Church - Advent, Christmas, Easter, Whitsun and also The Friends' Choral Evensong Service in the summer. We also sing at about half a dozen other services throughout the year.

Our repertoire is mainly Church music spanning the Renaissance through to contemporary eg Tallis, Palestrina, Bach, through Bruckner, Elgar and Stanford to Faure, Durufle and Rutter, traditional negro spirituals and we have even sung music by Sting!

Thankfully, we do have some experts, but most members are enthusiastic amateurs who just love singing fabulous choral works. We can all read music - if not necessarily sight sing it! – some better than others!

We are looking to recruit new voices so that we can expand our repertoire and put on concerts. There is no audition but your voice would need to fit in with our style of singing. If you would like to give us a try, why not come along to a couple of our weekly Thursday evening practice sessions (7.30pm at St Mary's) to see if we match up? All voice parts (soprano, alto, tenor and bass) and all ages are sure of a great welcome!

Ramblings from the Rectory

Remember, Remember the fifth of November/ Gunpowder, treason and plot...

The rhyme has been repeating itself in my head for days just to emphasise the point that, above all, November is a time for remembering. Oddly enough the fifth is one day when we don't do much remembering at all – but perhaps some things are actually best forgotten.

November begins with All Saints' Day – remembrance of all those who have gone before us whose names and lives we revere and to whose examples we aspire. But most of those we really celebrate are much more ordinary people who almost certainly never aspired to sainthood. Theirs is the following day - All Souls' Day, when we remember with thanksgiving all of those who have helped to make us who we are, the ones who have touched and influenced our lives personally, those whom we are glad to have known and especially those whom we have loved and who have loved us, and whom we miss.

Then of course there's Remembrance Sunday – the solemn remembrance of those thousands of men and women – all too often men and women whose lives had only just begun - sacrificed to the bitter futility of war. If only our memories were not so short and so selective!

All our remembering is drawn together in an ending and a beginning. The festival of Christ the King marks the end of the Church's year with the reminder of the triumph of God's love, and the beginning of Advent, the last Sunday of November, begins a time of looking back and looking forward, remembrance of time past and renewal of hope for the future. It reminds us, too, that: We have nothing to fear for the future unless we forget the way God has led us [and cared for us] in the past.

Lest we forget...

*Rev'd Alveen Thoresen
St Mary's Hawkesbury*

1 Peter 3 : 15

Harvest Festival on 2 October was the first service without the scaffolding for a number of weeks – this is progress! The Brownies paraded their flag and joined in the service with readings. Many thanks are due to everyone who brought goods, especially to Mr and Mrs Pettitt, who gave us apples and pears from their trees, and to the people who did beautiful flower arrangements. We bought the fresh fruit and vegetables, while the dried and tinned goods went down to the night shelter in Bristol, where they were gratefully received. They will help to build up stocks for the rest of the year. Thank you to everyone who contributed

We would also like to thank everyone who sat in the church during the summer, in order to keep it open for visitors. This is often a rewarding experience, because the visitors are interested in the church and its history, and are often interesting to meet. They are grateful to find the church open, as are we

Looking ahead, there will be a service on 2 November at 7.0 pm to commemorate All Souls, when we remember our own families and friends who have died, and all those who have worshipped over many generations in St Mary's

Remembrance Sunday is on 13 November, with a service of Evensong at 6.0 pm, following the parade service at the war memorial in the morning at 10.50 am for 11.0 am

Advent Sunday is on 27 November, with Evensong at 6.0 pm. Revd Alveen will be leading a series of Bible readings and discussion on Tuesdays 29 November, 6 and 13 December at 7.45 for 8.0 pm, at The Tithe Barn. Remember also the Advent lunches, 12.30 pm at the Methodist Hall, on the three Thursdays starting on 1 December. We are looking for kind volunteers to make soup and to help set up and serve

Anna, who had been blind since birth, tells this story: Some thirty-five years ago, in the time when there were no mobile phones, she was at college. Late one afternoon there was a power cut and as she was going out, there was a queue to use the telephone. They were all complaining that they couldn't see to dial the numbers! Anna offered to help, and she spent 45 minutes dialling for the students. She also helped those who needed to find the exit. This was a case of the blind leading the blind in a very positive way, and it really tickled Anna that so many people needed her help.

When Jesus used that phrase, He wasn't referring to people who were physically blind, He was talking about the Pharisees, a group of religious 'experts' of the day who had criticised His disciples for ignoring a tradition and were failing to see what faith was really about. They insisted, said Jesus, that people should obey the letter of the law (that is not only the biblical law but also the traditions which they had set up). They emphasised the need to appear holy, while forgetting the possibility of God being able to renew a persons thoughts and attitudes.

Doing the right thing is important, as Jesus acknowledged, but some people make the mistake of thinking that obeying the rules is the way to gaining acceptance from God. We can forget – or not realise in the first place – that we do not and cannot earn God's love! Rather, He offers it to us through the gift of His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ. The Bible says, in Acts 4 v.12 – "Salvation is found in no-one else (Jesus) for there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved" Anyone who tries to earn their way into heaven is going to fall short of their destination.

In Your Head

I love the prayer that begins, "God be in my head." When I first heard it, admittedly I thought it sounded a little weird.

But then I got to thinking how unfortunate it is if in our efforts to get closer to Jesus we focus on our emotional experience of Him and check our brains at the door.

Without His truth ringing in our heads, we're bound to get off track.

Just look at the early Christians. False teachers filled their heads with misinformation, saying that salvation and spiritual growth could be attained only through keeping the requirements of the law.

When Paul heard of it, he was astonished at how quickly they had gotten off track: "I marvel that you are turning away so soon from Him who called you in the grace of Christ" (Gal. 1:6).

It's not just false teachers who lead us astray.

Our world is full of twisted thinking like,

- "If it feels good, do it," or
- "The one with the most toys wins."

Let's face it, you and I can't afford to check our brains at the door.

In fact, intimacy with Jesus begins with getting to know Him, and it's the facts about Him that make us want to get close to Him.

So, strange as it may sound, if you want to stay on track with Jesus, start each day by asking Him to be in your head!

Methodist Minister*

Westonbirt Arboretum's Enchanted Christmas illuminated trail

25 November – 18 December

The spectacular Enchanted Christmas event will return to Westonbirt, The National Arboretum, managed by the Forestry Commission, this November and December.

Alongside exploring this year's new illuminated route through the trees, visitors can buy gifts and decorations in the Forest Shop and enjoy warming festive fare.

Families will also be able to enjoy a new winter wonderland in the education centre. Amongst a snowy setting, children can meet Westonbirt's green Father Christmas and make festive crafts with the arboretum's learning team.

For over ten years Westonbirt, The National Arboretum has thrilled winter visitors with the Enchanted Christmas illuminated trail.

The one mile trail highlights the striking structures of Westonbirt's trees in winter. A new route through the trees is created each year to take in different specimens, paths and vistas in the tree collection.

The illuminated trail is accessible for wheelchairs and mobility scooters, both of which can be booked for free in advance by calling 01666 881218.

Westonbirt's Enchanted Christmas takes place every Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening from 25 November to 18 December, from 5 to 8.30pm, with the last entry at 7.15pm.

Admission is adults £9, concessions £8 and children £5. Discounted entry is available for pre-booked groups over 10 people and Friends of Westonbirt Arboretum members receive half price entry on Fridays.

Advance tickets can be booked online from 1 October at www.forestry.gov.uk/westonbirt-christmas.

Local Author opens School Library

Pupils and staff at Rose Hill Westonbirt School were delighted last month following the official opening of the school's new Library. Local Author John Dougherty spent an afternoon at the School, running creative workshops for each class. Mr Dougherty read from his published books, recited hilarious poems and entertained with his guitar. The children thoroughly enjoyed the day and were able to ask Mr Dougherty plenty of questions about his writing.

Following the classes, the official ceremony took place with a cutting of a ribbon bedecked in Rose Hill Westonbirt colours. Once cut, a book signing with the Author took place. The event was led by the newly appointed Librarians and attended by pupils, parents, Governors and invited guests.

Commenting on the afternoon, Author John Dougherty said: "I am thrilled to be a part of the opening of Rose Hill Westonbirt's new Library. A Library is the most important room in a school, the most important building in a town. It is great to see a school putting such effort into ensuring children have access to a wide variety of books." John, who was himself once a teacher, has written many books including Jack Slater Monster Investigator, Niteracy Hour, Bansi O'Hara and the Bloodline Prophecy and Zeus on the Loose - a book shortlisted for the Branford Boase Award as 'an outstanding first novel for children'.

Many thanks to the Rose Hill Westonbirt Parents Association, who funded the new Library.

Bonfires

Now is the time of year when people are tidying their gardens after the summer vegetative growth. If not composting then maybe a bonfire is being thought about. Any large pieces of wood can be brought to the village recreational field for bonfire night, but if not please take heed of the following points:

Building a bonfire

Fire can spread easily, so where and how you build your bonfire is important. If you have a bonfire, follow these simple guidelines:

- warn your neighbours beforehand - they are much less likely to complain
- light the bonfire at a time least likely to affect your neighbours - eg not on a warm day when people will be in their garden
- only burn dry material not damp, which causes more smoke
- build the bonfire away from sheds, fences and trees
- check there are no cables - like telephone wires - above the bonfire don't use petrol or paraffin to get the fire going - it may get out of control quickly

Complaining to your council about your neighbour's bonfires

If your neighbour has a bonfire and it affects you, speak to them and explain the problem. They may not be aware of the distress they are causing - and may have not thought about other ways to dispose of the waste, like composting.

If speaking to your neighbour fails, contact your local council's environmental health department. In most cases, officers from the council will try to deal with the problem informally.

To be considered a nuisance, bonfires need to be a regular occurrence and seriously interfere with your well-being. If the bonfire is only occasional, eg a couple of times a year, it's unlikely to be considered a nuisance in law.

If the council considers a bonfire to be a nuisance, it can issue an 'abatement notice'. This notice may mean your neighbour must stop having bonfires completely. If they do not stick to the notice ('comply') they face a fine of up to £5000 and a further £500 for each day they don't comply.

Bonfires and the law

There aren't any specific laws against having a bonfire, but there are several laws that deal with the nuisance bonfires can cause.

Winterbourne Medieval Barn Trust

On behalf of the Winterbourne Medieval Barn Trust here is some information about the opening dates and events in Winterbourne Barn for the rest of 2011. The Barn dates from 1342 and is the only known surviving medieval barn in England built by gentry rather than the monasteries or universities, and as such is a building of national importance. It was rescued from dereliction by South Glos council and English Heritage. The Trust aims to preserve the remaining structure with its magnificent roof timbers, and revitalise the whole complex into a community-led project based on heritage and food and farming education.

The Barn will be open to the public (no charge, although donations are very welcome) at the following times:

Saturday 19th November 10am - 1pm. "Barnforce" volunteers will be on hand, maintaining the barn and its immediate environment.

Saturday 17th December - Carols in the Barn 3.30pm - 6pm

What's on at Westonbirt School – Autumn Term 2011.

Friday 11th November, 7:30pm (followed by optional supper) – Westonbirt Lecture

Got a parking ticket and want to get out of it?

Then you need to come along to the next Westonbirt Lecture by Chief Parking Adjudicator for England and Wales (and former Westonbirt pupil) Caroline Sheppard! Caroline has developed a new law of parking and speaks with gusto and humour about how to avoid parking tickets as well as how to appeal against them. She has appeared in many media articles and features and has been interviewed twice on the Today programme – much to John Humphries' amusement! So, if you want to outwit those parking clampers and attendants this is an evening not to be missed! Admission: free (please contact Reception to book post-lecture supper at £15 per head).

Thursday 8th December, 7:30pm – Community Celebration of Carols & Readings by Candlelight

With the Choirs of Westonbirt School. Admission: free (please reserve tickets by calling Reception).

For further information about any of these events please call – Westonbirt School Reception on 01666 880333.

A South Glos police stop at 2 am Wednesday

An elderly gent was stopped at 2 a.m. and asked why he was driving slowly, and where was he going.

"I am on my way to a lecture about alcohol abuse and the effects it has on the human body, as well as the perils of smoking and staying out late."

The officer then asked,

"Really? - and who is giving such a lecture at this time of night?"

The old boy replied

"That would be my wife!"
